LANDMARK AND MARKET TALENTS

#

Range

This unit attacks and retaliates from up to # hexes away.

Tracker

Instead of moving, you may teleport this unit up to # hexes. If you do, it must teleport to a valid hex adjacent to a revealed landmark minion.

A

Air Defense

This unit or spire can attack units with Flying.

Anarchy

Before this unit's movement each turn, roll the D6. On a 5 or 6, discard this unit.

Anti–Brawnen

This unit cannot be deployed by the brawnen faction.

Anti–Heirs

This unit cannot be deployed by the heir faction.

Armored

When this unit is attacked, reduce damage by 1.

Assault

When this unit attacks a spire, remove the bottom upgrade before dealing damage.

Assist

When an adjacent friendly unit defeats an opposing unit or spire, this unit may level up.

Awaken

When this chip is revealed, also reveal all non–anomaly landmarks. Then, discard this chip.

B

Back to the Future

Once per wave. At the end of your turn during the Onslaught Phase, this unit may move and attack even if it has already done so this turn.

Battle Hardened

When this unit is attacked by a spire, reduce the damage dealt by 2.

C

Camouflage

Units and spires must be adjacent to this unit or spire in order to attack it.

Capture

After this unit defeats an opposing faction minion, you may place that minion beside your fortress. When the minion's controlling faction damages your fortress gate, return the minion to its barracks. You can have a maximum of 3 minions captured from each faction at a time.

Channel

Each time this unit is attacked, gain 2 Source.

Cumbersome

Item. The hero holding this item has a movement stat of 2 and can move only on path hexes. No talent, advancement or relic may be used to move or teleport this hero with the exception of Riftwalk. If the hero takes damage, this item is placed on the hero's hex.

D

Degradation

After this spire attacks, remove its bottom 2 upgrades.

Devoted

Ungrouped only. After or instead of its movement, this unit may be placed on an adjacent Source well. It is now considered a landmark minion that is friendly only to The Uprising. As a build option during the Build Phase, you may return this minion to your barracks to construct a spire on the Source well it occupied, ignoring influence restrictions.

Dexterity

If damage from a retaliating unit would defeat this unit, instead reduce the damage to 0.

Directional Attack

When this spire is constructed, point its arrow ▲ at an adjacent hex. This spire may only attack opposing units along the line of hexes in the indicated direction.

E

Engage

Units able to attack this landmark must do so.

Entropy

If this chip's health is reduced to exactly 1, it does not retaliate and defeats itself immediately, dealing 2 damage to all adjacent non–naroran units.

Evasive

When this unit is attacked by a unit with Range, reduce the damage dealt to 1.

Explosion

Before this unit's movement, you may remove this equipment and place it faceup on an adjacent non-path hex. When a unit moves onto a hex adjacent to this chip, it must forego the rest of its movement and roll a D6. The unit suffers damage equal to the die result. Then, discard this chip.

F

Fair Fight

This unit's attack stat is equal to that of the unit it is attacking or retaliating against.

Flying

Ungrouped only. This unit can only be attacked by units or spires with Air Defense or Flying. Other units may displace this unit.

Foreboding

When you explore this landmark, you must reveal it.

Fountain

At the start of each round, all faction units adjacent to this landmark recover 2 health. Discard this chip at the end of the wave.

H

Healing

At the start of your turn, this unit recovers 1 health.

Hero's Quest

This chip may only be revealed by a hero. A hero that explores this chip must reveal it and then choose one:

- Return this hero to your fortress and gain 4 Source. Place this chip facedown.
- Defeat this hero and discard this chip. Gain 2 relics and 6 Source.

Hidden Armor

Discard this equipment to ignore damage dealt to the unit carrying it.

Hunter

When attacking a landmark, deal +1 damage.

I

Improve

When this unit ends its movement adjacent to a friendly spire, you may spend 2 Source to add any upgrade to that spire, ignoring upgrade capacity.

Incorporeal

This unit may move through opposing units but cannot end its movement on the same hex as another unit. Steal 1 Source from the controlling faction of each active unit it passes through.

L

Leech

After this unit attacks or retaliates, it recovers health up to the amount of damage dealt.

Lookout

At the start of your turn, you may look at any number of landmarks within # hexes of this unit or spire. This is not considered exploring.

M

Magic–Like Missile

Once per turn. Before or after this unit's movement, you may spend 2 Source to deal 1 damage to a unit up to 3 hexes away.

Multi–Target

When this spire fires, it rolls its spire attack dice once and applies the damage to all of the current player's units within its range.

O

Overload

On your turn, if you have a unit adjacent to this landmark, you may spend 6 Source to discard this landmark and gain its reward.

P

Poison

When this spire or unit makes a successful attack or retaliation that would remove health from a unit, the attack instead removes half of the unit's existing health, rounded down. If this unit or spire has an attack stat of ★, its attacks and retaliations are always considered successful.

Portable Gateport

Item. Before or after your hero's movement, you may spend 1 Source. If you do, your hero may either pick this item up from an adjacent hex or drop it on an adjacent non–path hex. The talents on this item cannot be used while it is possessed by a hero.

Prepared

When this unit is dealt retaliation damage by another unit, reduce the damage by 1.

Prowl

At the start of each round, the player with the fewest spires must move this unit 2 hexes in the direction of their choice. If tied, the tied player that goes latest in turn order moves it. If this unit ends its movement adjacent to a fortress gate, it attacks the gate immediately.

Q

Quick Counter

When this unit is attacked by an adjacent unit, this unit deals its retaliation damage first. If the attacker is not defeated, it deals its attack damage as normal.

Quick Strike

This unit may attack prior to spires firing.

R

Reap

Once per wave. If this unit is adjacent to a Source well, spire, or landmark, you may gain D6 Source.

Recruitable

At the end of your turn, if your faction attacked this unit this turn, and it is not under the control of another faction, you may gain control of it.

Refinery

At the end of each wave, gain 2 Source.

Relentless

As this unit's retaliation, roll the spire attack die to determine how much damage it deals. Continue rolling the die until you roll a blank or a 2. Then, deal damage equal to the total amount rolled.

Repeater

Once per turn. After this spire attacks a unit but does not defeat it, this spire may make an additional attack.

Riftwalk

Units may move onto this chip as if it were a path hex. Units that move onto this chip are teleported to another chip with Riftwalk of the controlling faction's choice, if able. If the destination chip is currently occupied by another unit or group of units, those units are defeated. Defeating opposing grouped units this way grants the reward for only the top unit.

S

Scatter

Grouped only. Before or after this unit's movement, it may leave its group. If it does, place it on a valid adjacent hex and reveal the next unit in the group.

Secret Passage

When this chip is revealed, place 1 health under it. You may attack this chip to remove its health. Once its health is removed, heroes may move onto this landmark as if it were a path hex. Then, the hero's owner selects an unrevealed landmark on an adjacent isle. Swap this chip and the hero with the unrevealed landmark. When a hero moves off this landmark, place 1 health under it.

Silencer

If this spire rolls a miss or a 2 on any of its attack dice, its target cannot attack for the remainder of the turn.

Snare

The movement stat of all opposing minions beginning their movement within this spire's range is reduced to 1.

Source Link

During your turn in the Onslaught Phase, you may gain control of this landmark if you have a unit adjacent to it. While you control this landmark, you gain +5 Source during the Income Phase and +2 CP during the Prep Phase.

Speed

This unit's movement stat is increased by 1.

Spire Shot

This unit may move onto friendly non–fortress spires. While on a spire, this unit gains +1 Range. The spire is inactive while this unit is on top.

Splash

When this unit or spire attacks, it may also deal 1 damage to all units adjacent to its target.

Summon Hero

Before or after its movement, a hero adjacent to this chip may spend 3 Source to teleport another hero to a valid hex adjacent to this chip.

Sure–Footed

This unit gains .

Survival

At the end of your turn, if this unit did not move or attack, it may recover 1 health.

Swindle

When this unit attacks or retaliates against faction units, do not deal damage. Instead, steal 1 Source from that faction for each damage that would have been dealt.

T

Toxic Secretion

If a non–griege unit moves onto a hex adjacent to this unit, deal it 1 damage.

Train

This hero's upgrade capacity is increased by 1.

U

Ultimate Reward

Item. If your hero returns to its fortress in possession of this item, remove this chip from play and set either your fortress gate health or your Source to maximum.

Unstable Rift

When this chip is revealed, it defeats all units and groups of units adjacent to it. The revealing player gains Source equal to the current health of all destroyed units. Then, remove this chip from play.

Untamed

This unit may never be placed under control of a faction.

W

Waterwalker

While this unit is on a water hex, spires cannot attack it.

Weak Point

Instead of attacking, this unit may remove the top two upgrades from an adjacent opposing spire.

Wind Turbine

Flying and Range are ignored for all units within this spire's range.
